

Mom and Dad,

I love you and have through everything. No offense, but please do not try to understand me to every extent because as far as I can tell some things were still a mystery to you. You two did the best you could and I thank you for doing as much as you did. Please don't think people are always out to get you. It brings you down and sometimes being a little naive helps.

Thank you for being there when I needed you. Please be kind to Nanny and Poppy, you wouldn't believe the things they've done for me. Let [REDACTED] know I love her and if it had come down to it I would have taken a bullet for her.

I love you two. Don't forget it. I'm sorry this is short.

Nanny + Poppy,

Thank for your love and support through all the hard years. I may not have shown it as much as I should have, but I am grateful. You two deserved so much better than what I was as a grand daughter. I know the obstacles were hard and I'm sorry. I love you.

The main reason I'm doing this is because even after my baby is found, I would not be a good mother. With two jobs and full time school I tried my hardest, but always slacked in some area. Trenton should of had my full attention at all times. I'm sorry.

My heart has always been in the right place, honest to God. My reasoning is what is off at times. Please take care of each other, have me cremated and pray to me whenever you can. I love you.

Theres so much more I would say to you, but please understand that I have to do this. Its a release from stress and frustration and I'll be happier in the end. Besides, soon enough we'll all be → together again. Again, I love you.

PS - I know
it'll be hard,
but in my car, lift out
the ash tray.
It is for you.
I love you

Public -

I'm sorry this is short. Usually I plan things out and am better with my writing.

Your focus came off of my son. I love him and only wanted him safe in my arms. You created rumors and twisted words. Usually I am strong and what others say does not affect me. However I am young, have worked my ass off and still being faced with ridicule and criticism.

I only wish you do not push anyone else. I do not bleed my emotions to the public and throughout this situation you did not understand that. There were many more errors you made in understanding me, but time is short and I have more important people to speak to.

There are so many people I would write to if I could and had the time. This is a last minute idea, but I have felt myself sinking after 1 week mark of Trent being gone. I love him dearly and he is all I was breathing for. He was and always will be my essence and as he grows, I want him to know that.

I have refrained from any negative comments in the hopes that individuals will realize their wrong doings. Thank you for your time.
